

Join us to celebrate the 2025 XK Club Weekend this summer in Worcestershire and The Marches region.
Each element of the Weekend is bookable separately.
Hosted by Philip and Julie Porter, and the XK Club team.

Friday 18 July - supper and music

Join us for a glass of fizz and a delicious buffet supper in the Dutch Barn at Hilltop Farm (XK Club HQ). Then dance the night away to the sounds of renowned local guitarist Remi Harris and his Blue Merlin Blues Band. Remi draws inspiration from such artists as Django Reinhardt, Peter Green, Wes Montgomery, Led Zeppelin, Gerry Mulligan and Jimi Hendrix. Jamie Cullum (BBC Radio 2) says: 'Remi Harris is one of the great guitarists we have in the country, an absolutely extraordinary musician'. He has played at the Proms at the Royal Albert Hall, the Montreal Jazz Festival and even at Buckingham Palace. So you'll be in good company...

Cash bar – wine, beer, soft drinks

Parking will be close to Hilltop Farm – look for signs on the lane.

Dress code - as you like!

£68 per person

Saturday 19 July – The Drive

Meet at The Salwey Arms at Woofferton near Ludlow before a scenic drive through picture-perfect Herefordshire, taking in part of the Black and White Trail, so-named because the Medieval villages en route are blessed with the prettiest half-timbered properties. They are an absolute delight, brimming with character.

Philip has devised the route just for this weekend, so you can look forward to a mix of open roads and country lanes. It won't be too challenging!

Aiming to finish mid-afternoon to enable some down-time before dinner.

Coffee, lunch and route book included.

£90 per car (based on two people). Ask the Club office if you will be solo.

Saturday 19 July – The Dinner

Reconvene at the Salwey Arms for the Club Dinner in a private dining room at this lovely inn which prides itself on providing locally-sourced produce, capturing the flavours of The Marches region. A delicious three-course dinner with coffee and wine.

Meet in the bar at 7pm for dinner at 7.30pm.

We expect to finish by 10.30pm at the latest.

See the list of taxi companies on the Club website.

Dress code - smart casual

£63 per person

Sunday 20 July – Club Day at Classic Nostalgia

'Celebrating the glory days of motorsport' with great cars and famous faces

This is a firm favourite on the historic motorsport calendar. Join us at Shelsley Walsh Hillclimb – the oldest motorsport venue in the world still to run events on the original course. Older than Indianapolis, Le Mans and Monza...

Nestled in the gorgeous Teme Valley, this is the place to be on a summer Sunday. We have arranged a Club parking area and a lovely picnic lunch. Dietary options will be available.

Presentation of Club Trophies mid-afternoon.

The day's activities include: spectacular hill climb racing; Classic & Sports Car Concours; pole position for Club parking; Exhibition of Speed; demonstration runs; quality trade stands selling everything from accessories to motoring books, models art and memorabilia; vintage fashion competition for the best and most authentic vintage outfit; non-stop entertainment; main stage interviews; live bands and much more...

Only cars booked through the Club will be able to park in the Club parking area.

Gates open at 8 am

Sorry, no dogs permitted!

Early Bird entry tickets £46 per person until 30 April
